

TERESA BOZEMAN

A Realtor Who Honestly Knows How to Get Results!

When it comes to buying or selling a home, your results are largely dependent upon the experience and qualifications of your Realtor. Theresa Bozeman is a real estate specialist you can trust to help you achieve results in the quickest time frame possible. With 30 years experience dealing with even the trickiest and most complicated real estate situations. Theresa has the kind of knowledge you can count on.

Theresa not only knows the business of real estate, but she also has a comprehensive background in construction. As a result, she can provide valuable insight to altering an existing structure or to the building of a new home. Theresa has owned two construction companies and has successfully completed many renovation projects. In this capacity, she can assist you in areas where others cannot.
